

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your privacy is very important to us. As a visitor to our center, we request that you sign in by providing your name, a valid email address, zip code, identify the purpose of your visit and person with whom you will meet. This information is important so that we know who is on our premises and to provide you with the best possible experience.

We may use other personally identifiable information for internal purposes only. We may provide generic information about your age, gender, race, zip code, and program utilization to third parties for statistical purposes or as required by our funders. Any information we provide will not identify you by name.

Please know that we will use your email to communicate with you. You may choose to opt out of further emails at any time, which will cease all email communications.

YWCA Metropolitan Chicago is the sole owner of the information we collect. We will not sell or transmit your name, email, mailing address or other personally identifiable information to anyone outside our organization.
