

Somewhere Over the Rainbow: Support for LGBTQIA Survivors

YWCA Metropolitan Chicago will be hosting an 8-week therapy group for LGBTQIA identifying individuals impacted by sexual violence. This group will be a safe, supportive space where survivors can join in:

- Exploring the intersections of identity and sexual violence
- Processing the impact of sexual trauma and violence within the LGBTQIA identity.
- Fostering connection and community with other survivors.

The group is open to LGBTQIA identifying adult survivors of sexual abuse.

If you are interested in attending, contact Adrienne Harkless at 312.762.2778 or Alex Champagne at 312.229.7251.

All interested individuals must complete an intake.
